

Dear Friend,

On October 2, 2014, the Women's Fund will honor local female philanthropists at the Third Annual Power of the Purse at the Hershey Lodge with the Women in Philanthropy (WIP) award. The Power of the Purse is a fun evening combining information sharing with laughter and the opportunity to make new friends. In addition to the WIP awards, there will be a purse auction to raise money for the endowment fund and a speaker on a woman's ability to drive philanthropy in our local community. We are writing today asking you to nominate a woman worthy to receive the WIP award.

We are seeking candidates that possess the following qualities and requirements:

- Gives freely and unselfishly by providing her time, talent and treasure to philanthropic community activities
- Inspires others and acts as a role model
- Has a positive impact on the direction and success of women and children related to community projects, programs or individuals
- Improves the lives of others
- Must be female
- Must have worked or lived in your local area of: Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Lebanon, or Perry Counties, as well as the Dillsburg Area
- Must have demonstrated an interest in issues related to women's health, education and economic self-sufficiency
- Must have provided a financial commitment to the Women's Fund and/or other women's issues programs or projects within your local area

To assist the committee in their selection, please include the enclosed nomination form with a short statement (250 words or less) describing the candidate's contributions to improving the lives of women and girls in South Central PA. All nominations are due by August 29, 2014. Please submit completed nominations to Mark Bradshaw at mbradshaw@tfec.org. Please call Jennifer Doyle, 717.236.5040, with any questions.

Sincerely,
