An Evening with Wajahat Ali

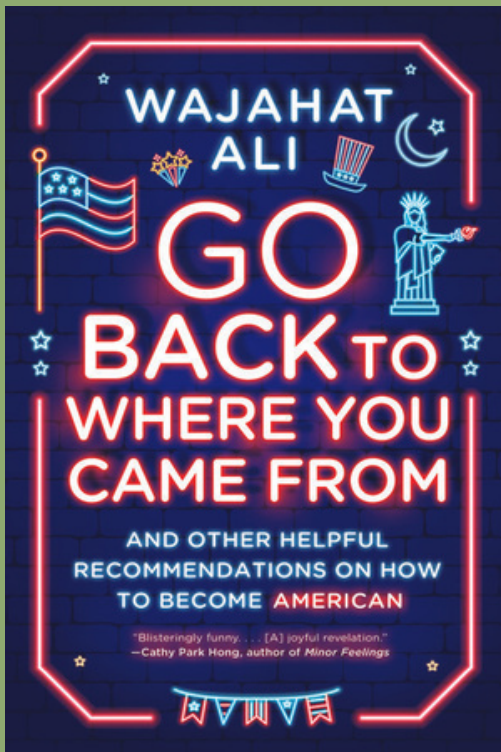

AAPL Heritage Month Celebration

Friday, May 19

Midtown Scholar Bookstore

7:00pm - 8:00pm

Midtown Scholar Bookstore and HAAPL are honored to welcome author Wajahat Ali to Harrisburg for an in-person presentation and signing on his new book.

In Go Back to Where You Came From, Ali tackles the dangers of Islamophobia, white supremacy, and chocolate hummus, peppering personal stories with astute insights into national security, immigration, and pop culture.

In this refreshingly bold, hopeful, and uproarious memoir, Ali offers indispensable lessons for cultivating a more compassionate, inclusive, and delicious America.

The event is free and open to the public.
Registration is not required.

Feeling Asian American

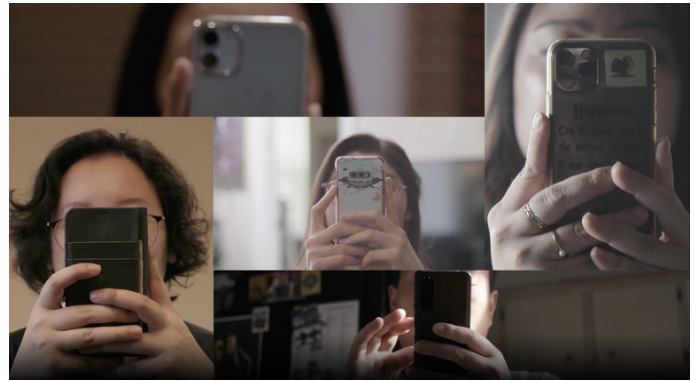

AAPI Heritage Month Celebration

Saturday, May 20

Midtown Cinema
3:00pm - 4:30pm

아시아계 미국인 느낌 Feeling Asian American 感觉亚裔美国人

Feeling Asian American explores the emotional journeys of five individuals, who navigated their way through their own racial reckonings in the face of the COVID-19 pandemic. During the height of anti-Asian hate that not only continues to ripple out today, but also brings up echoes of the past, they found community, connection, and self. Through this film, we invite you to hear us, know us, see us. We are not a monolith, but we are all human. And we are here.

HAAPI Stories

AAPI Heritage Month Celebration

Saturday, May 20

Crawdaddy's Restaurant

5:30pm - 8:00pm

HAAPI (Harrisburg Asian American Pacific Islander) is a community who believes in sharing stories, not status. You are invited to celebrate the rich and beautiful Asian American stories through a photo story telling experience. In sharing our stories, we hope to create visibility, empathy, connection, community, and joy.

"I love drawing inspiration from Asian and Asian American designers. From the modern takes on traditional clothing to identity fluid expressions, I'm here to support and sometimes get playful with the way I express myself through clothing and makeup."

HALSTON

"My family history and heritage brings me much joy, and the color, curiosity, and zest for being just a bit different are in my blood."

AMY

$20 per person. Sponsorship opportunities available.

RSVP and purchase tickets by May 15 at linktr.ee/AAPIHBG.
