> Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

My name is Sharup Acharya and I am from a small country between China and India. I currently attend Penn State Harrisburg and I'm majoring in Security and risk Analysis I have been in the United States for 10 years and I had the opportunity to further my education in the great country. Back in my country we had limited opportunity and very low financial support. We lived in a poor condition in our refugee camps and even though we had a school, it didn't give us enough to lead us to a successful future.

America has been a Land of opportunity because of scholarships like Samuel L. Abrams Foundation, I will have a strong financial support and will be able to give all my focus towards my education. If I receive this scholarship, I will be able to continue my education with less worries about how to pay for the college and have much better chances of having a very successful future. I want to make my family and everyone who has helped me in life very proud and getting some help from the foundation will help me reach my goals. Thank you for all your consideration and help towards helping people further their education.
