Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

To Whom it May Concern,

For the past decade, my father, Alan Adler, had derived his main source of income from a family business which amassed a huge commercial debt load, which now amounts to approximately $262,000. My parents' 2018 tax returns show capital gains from the sale of stocks that were used to pay 2017 taxes. The majority of proceeds from the stock sale were automatically recouped by the brokerage in order to pay off the margin loan used to finance the business. The remainder was used to pay 2017 taxes. My father started a new job in February 2020 to supplement his business income. Then came COVID-19. The governor ordered the closure of all businesses, which prevented my father's company from manufacturing any product and therefore from making any sales. The company's viability is now in question. As a sole member LLC with no payroll, government assistance from the CARES act was not available at first and ran out before the business was able to receive any assistance. At the supplemental job, his salary was just cut 10% due to the economic pressures from COVID-19. The combination of these two events stemming from the pandemic has put significant additional strain on our finances this year.

Sincerely,

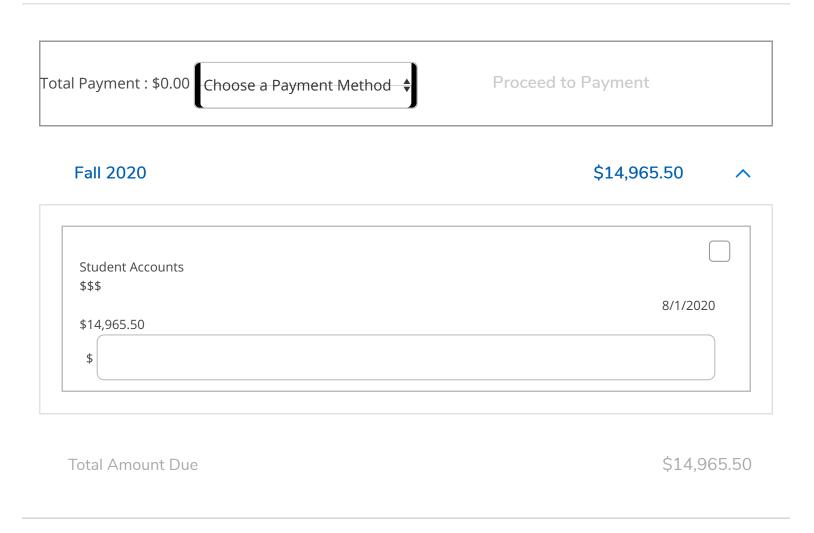

Eli Adler

Although I cannot say for certain where my life is heading, I like to think that I have a rough plan laid out. That plan started with my attendance of American University (AU) this past year, where I began to study political science with a minor in Israeli politics. In the beginning, I was very nervous to go to college. AU was, and is, an expensive school, and my academic ups and downs throughout high school made me hesitant to spend so much money to pursue an education. However, my desire to study political science brought me back to AU as I made my final decision. Despite its high cost, it has an amazing program for my major, and its close proximity to D.C. made it one of the best choices I could have made. Being so close to the capital city also opens up new opportunities, such as government internships, that would be hard to acquire at other schools. AU also has a very large Jewish population, and with it a large swath of classes that contribute to the Israeli Studies minor I plan to attain as well.

My academic fears faded into the background as the year progressed, and I have now finished my freshman semesters with all A's and A-'s. After such a strong start, I am more sure than ever that I am on the right track to achieve what I want to in life, whether that ends up being law school, graduate school, or something else entirely. With your help, I hope to be able to continue my education at American University without having to worry about my financial woes as much as I currently am. I thank you for your consideration for this scholarship, and look forward to hearing back from you soon.
