➤ Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Total Amount of Loans Outstanding -
FFEL (Bank Loans) and/or Direct Loans:	Total Principal Balance	Remaining Amount to be Disbursed	Total

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location

After completing three semesters at college, my goals have not changed. My goal is still to go to graduate school and become a Pediatric Occupational Therapist. I have early assurance into Messiah College's Master of Occupational Therapy program. College is certainly not easy, but my dream of helping special needs children motivates me to keep pressing into the challenge. I'm learning not to define my self-worth through grades, but rather in the effort I put into my work and the payoff it will have with helping people in the future. My favorite courses have been Anatomy and Physiology as well as Biological Basis of Behaviors. My Biological Basis class was a 300-level course, which scared me a bit. However, I was so proud of myself when I completed the class with an A and loved soaking in every bit of neuroscience information from the professor. Next semester, I look forward to diving into a whole neuroscience class as well as classes like Animal Behavior, Physiology, and Research Methods in Psychology. My favorite aspect about college has been how all of my courses intertwine. I can see the connections between the subject matter in my biology classes as well as my psychology classes. I can always apply what I'm learning in one course to other classes as well. These classes reveal to me the sheer amazingness of our Creator God. The intricacies of the human mind and body are mind blowing. I love how this major and career path not only excite me for serving children in the future, but they are constantly revealing new things to me to deepen my appreciation of the Lord.
