> Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System \(NSLDS\) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location

Samuel L. Abrams Scholarship

In the words of Lewis Howes, “the greatest gift you can give yourself is education and growth.” In the economic world, a post-secondary education can be the ticket to success in the United States. While it is true that more labor-opportunities are being provided for individuals with a high school diploma for a decent income, I know that receiving a specialized curriculum in the field of psychology can teach me about discipline, efficiency, and important life skills.

Likewise, when I found out about the on-campus opportunities provided by Messiah College, in addition to their specialized psychology program, I knew that I found an educational place to call home while being in touch with my spiritual beliefs. I’m excited to grow, both spiritually and academically, where I can deepen my core convictions and be open to new experiences. I embrace the chance to advance my understanding of the human mind, grow my personal faith and strengthen my commitment to the common good with a passion for community and justice.
