Electronic Student Aid Report (SAR)

The SAR summarizes the information you submitted on your 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

XXX-XX-1662 BR 02 Application Receipt Date: 01/20/2020 Processed Date: 07/07/2020 EFC: 1873 DRN: 7888

Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

This SAR has been produced due to a change in your financial aid history information in the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) that may affect your eligibility for federal student aid.

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 1873. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study, and possible funding from your state and school.

There is a limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive, which is the equivalent of 6 school years. Based on information reported to the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) by the schools you have attended, you have received Pell Grants for the equivalent of between one and one-half and two school years.

There is a limit to the total amount of subsidized Federal student loans that you may receive. Visit https://StudentAid.gov and select Types of Aid/Loans for more information.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

Based on your EFC of 1873, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant of up to $4,495 for the 2020-2021 school year provided you have not met or exceeded the lifetime limit established for the Federal Pell Grant program.

Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Total Amount of Loans Outstanding -

Obtaining a post secondary education is important not only for acquiring more knowledge than you would receive in high school alone, but it teaches you life skills too. In college you have more chances to improve your communication skills with peers and teachers alike. You can also make connections with people that can help you down the road when looking for a job. College isn't easy, but if done right a person can come out of it four years later a completely different person with knowledge and a skill set that most people who don't go cannot obtain.

Growing up in the conditions that I did I knew I would need to go to college to become successful in today's world and when the time came to choose a college I knew I was ready to go and I was very excited about that next chapter in my life. The only problem was that I did not know exactly what school would be the right fit for me. As a senior looking at schools I saw there were many options to choose from, but not too many in my budget. The one college stood out to me more than others was Kutztown University. I was told about Kutztown by my best friend from high school who was planning on attending the school, so I decided to look into it. The school has a nice atmosphere to it that made me feel right at home. Out of all the other schools I looked at, no other made me feel the way Kutztown does. And everyday I spend there no matter how long or agonizing the work may be I never lose my love for the school.
