Electronic Student Aid Report (SAR)

The SAR summarizes the information you submitted on your 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Application Receipt Date:	11/25/2019	XXX-XX-3160 DI 02
Processed Date:	12/12/2019	EFC: 76949
		DRN: 6456

Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 76949. You are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant but you may be eligible for other aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for other federal grants, loans, and work-study, and possible funding from your state and school.

We have forwarded your name to Selective Service for registration, as you requested. They will process your registration request 30 days prior to your 18th birthday.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

The parents' marital status you reported in Item 58 does not appear to agree with the parents' tax return filing status reported in Item 81. If one of these items is incorrect, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page to make the correction. If the information you reported is correct, make sure the income information reported in Items 84 through 87, 91, and 92 correctly reflects your parents' 2018 income.

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System \(NSLDS\) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location.

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1845-0001. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 5 to 10 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. The obligation to respond to this collection is voluntary. If you have comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, please contact the Federal Student Aid Information Center, P.O. Box 84, Washington, D.C. 20044 directly.

We may request additional information from you to process your application more efficiently. We will collect this additional information only as needed and on a voluntary basis.

By answering questions 101a through 101t, and signing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, you give permission to the U.S. Department of Education to provide information from your application to the college(s) you entered. You also agree that such information is deemed to incorporate by reference the certification statement on the sign and submit page of the financial aid application. The certification statement can be viewed at StudentAid.gov/2021/help/certification-statement.

WARNING: If you are convicted of drug distribution or possession for an offense that occurred while you were receiving Title IV aid, your eligibility for Title IV student financial aid is subject to suspension or termination. If your drug conviction status changes at any time during the 2020-2021 award year, you must update your answer to the drug conviction affecting eligibility question.

To the Scholarship Committee,

I am submitting this letter of extenuating circumstances as an attachment to my FAFSA Student Aid Report. The SAR shows an EFC of more than $70K based on my father and stepmother's combined incomes. Since I filed the FAFSA, our family life has drastically changed. My grandfather passed away from a long battle with esophageal cancer in August of last year. And left behind his wife, my grandmother Louise. Gram, as I call her, has recently been diagnosed with dementia/Alzheimer's disease and cannot live alone any longer.

My dad and stepmom, with whom I live full time, have taken responsibility for the caregiving of my grandmother, and have recently moved her into our family home, which already includes me, my brother Anthony, and my sister Chaya. There are 6 of us now. Gram has full day, in home care, that, according to my parents, costs about $900 a week, or $46,800 a year. Just for her home health care aide. This is a significant new expense for our family and has changed our financial situation.

We respectfully submit this attachment to my scholarship application so that your committee may consider these new and extenuating circumstances that have recently changed so much for all of us.

Sincerely,

Buck Diacont

My name is Buck Diacont, I am a senior at Lower Dauphin High School and I am fortunate to be going to Kings College in Wilkes Barre, PA in the fall of 2020. For me, pursuing a future that includes going to college is about two things. Firstly, I wish to contribute to the world with a career in something related to sustainability, perhaps as an engineer, as a 'green' architect, or working for a LEED-certified construction & design firm. I am choosing a pathway that will hopefully include a bachelor's degree from Kings College, so that I can seek a competitive job in a field that I believe in as important for our region & our country's future growth and that also respects our environment.

Secondly, I wish to continue the tradition of playing sports in college, as my father and grandfather both did. My grandpop played on the defensive line for NC State football. And my dad had a full ride to Duke University on a wrestling scholarship. I was the leading goal scorer on my high school soccer team, and we won the PIAA 3A state championship this year, which has been the most exciting time of my life. And has caught the attention of some college coaches, who would like to add my soccer skills to their team. Kings College is going to allow me to pursue a degree that will help me achieve my career goals for the future while also getting the thrill of playing competitive college-level soccer. I am grateful for both opportunities and hope to make my family and my coach and teammates proud this fall.
