2020-2021

Electronic Student Aid Report (SAR)

The SAR summarizes the information you submitted on your 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

XXX-XX-3072 CA 02 Application Receipt Date: 10/07/2019 Processed Date: 01/21/2020 EFC: 4978 * DRN: 5629

Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 4978. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study, and possible funding from your state and school.

Your FAFSA has been selected for a review process called verification. Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents from you and your parent(s).

There is a limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive, which is the equivalent of 6 school years. Once a total amount of Pell Grant eligibility has been received, a student can no longer receive Pell Grant aid.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

Based on your EFC of 4978, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant of up to $1,245 for the 2020-2021 school year provided you have not met or exceeded the lifetime limit established for the Federal Pell Grant program.

Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location.

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1845-0001. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 5 to 10 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. The obligation to respond to this collection is voluntary. If you have comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, please contact the Federal Student Aid Information Center, P.O. Box 84, Washington, D.C. 20044 directly.

We may request additional information from you to process your application more efficiently. We will collect this additional information only as needed and on a voluntary basis.

By answering questions 101a through 101t, and signing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, you give permission to the U.S. Department of Education to provide information from your application to the college(s) you entered. You also agree that such information is deemed to incorporate by reference the certification statement on the sign and submit page of the financial aid application. The certification statement can be viewed at StudentAid.gov/2021/help/certification-statement.

WARNING: If you are convicted of drug distribution or possession for an offense that occurred while you were receiving Title IV aid, your eligibility for Title IV student financial aid is subject to suspension or termination. If your drug conviction status changes at any time during the 2020-2021 award year, you must update your answer to the drug conviction affecting eligibility question.

Personal Essay

When I think of my background and where I come from, I immediately think of growing up in the inner city with a single mother. I grew up in a one parent household my entire life with my mother whom I am truly grateful for and admire. I watched her work tremendously hard to provide for and support me through my endeavors. There were many challenges and obstacles that I had to face being raised by a single mother but I believe that it created me into the person I am today and also it will have a profound impact on the person I will become in the future. My mother always instilled in me the importance of work ethics and becoming an independent woman.

When I was 8 years old, my little brother was born which was one of the joyous moments of my life. However, I had to mature very quickly. My brother was diagnosed with autism which altered our lives financially and emotionally. We had to adjust to providing support for a special needs child which was a tremendous transformation for my mom and subsequently it affected me. Eventually, I started remembering the words my mother would always say to me about being independent and making a change in myself for the better. Once these words resonated in me, I began working on my independency which I applied to my first job at Chick-Fil-A at the age of 15. Starting my first job really influenced me to gain personal dependence. With this job I was able to help my mother financially by providing for my own needs which put a big smile on her face as well as my own. Not only was I able provide for myself but I also had the opportunity to assist with my brother's essentials as well. My first job helped me gain my dependency and helped me to realize that at a young age I can make a difference not only in my home but worldwide.

Work ethic was also a phrase instilled in me by my mother which is a huge contributor to my identity. Being financially unstable and realizing that I couldn't always wear the newest styles had an emotional impact on me. This afforded me the will to work hard in order to get what I deserved. By doing this, I have achieved many goals such as becoming a supervisor at my current job as well as maintaining honors throughout my high school career. Work ethics is no longer a phrase for me, it has become a part of my life.

In conclusion, these events have sparked a personal growth in me and a new understanding of life. I have grown into a strong minded, independent, and hard-working young woman because of my mother being that example for me. Being a single mother is not an easy task, but my mother showed me different. Thanks to her, I am the woman I am today because of her lessons and examples she showed me throughout my life. She has raised me not only to be an independent person but a leader and how to persevere through the difficult times in my life. While helping with the growth of my brother, I also maintained good grades, exceled on my job, and participated in extracurricular activities. Despite balancing both personal and financial aspects of my life, I have learned that life is all about the way you live it. If you think positive and have a will to succeed, it doesn't matter what life brings you, all things are possible.

To Whom It May Concern:

Jalyn Carter is a smart and focused individual who I am recommending in this letter. She has what it takes to be successful in a competitive college or university. Due to her being a successful student at SciTech, I believe she will continue her success moving forward.

Writing effectively was a skill we worked on extensively in the Social Studies course she was part of. She was asked to form an opinion, support that opinion with textual evidence, and explain how the evidence supported her opinion. Jalyn was able to do that successfully.

In addition, Jalyn showed a strong interest in law. She was able to analyze and explain key points in my law class which she was a part of. She seemed to find cases very interesting and observed several cases at the Dauphin County Courthouse in Harrisburg, PA. She even wanted to be part of our Mock Trial team but, for a variety of reasons, we did not field a team this year.

Otherwise, Jalyn is a positive and mature young lady. It is for these reasons and more that I recommend Jalyn. I wish her all the best in her future endeavors. I feel she truly values a quality education.

Sincerely,

Paul Del Priore Social Studies Teacher Harrisburg University SciTech Campus

To Whom It May Concern:

As Youth and Young Adult Pastor of Goodwin Memorial Baptist Church (GMBC) it is my honor and pleasure to address my unique relationship with Jalyn Carter, as well as her character and abilities.

Jalyn has been a long standing-member OF GMBC and has shared her God given gifts through various ministries to include the Youth Choir, Youth Usher Board, Mime Dancer, and a leader and mentor in Teen Church. Her involvement in these ministries has demonstrated a young lady of Christian values and morals, work ethic, dignity, respect and concern for others as well trustworthy, dependable, diligent, intelligent, dedicated, considerate, personable and has become a mentor to younger members of GMBC Teen Church.

Jalyn was one of the founding members of GMBC Teen Church and offered her servant heart, creativity, willingness to accept responsibility and knows how to say no, displayed her ability to respect and understand things from others perspective as she has lead and participated in the development and implementation of our vision, mission and sermon round table discussions.

Jalyn consistently demonstrates an ability to rise to any challenge that she must face in ministries and other endeavors. Jalyn is conscientious and is serious about her future education. I am confident that Jalynn would be an asset to any school that she is accepted into.
