The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System \(NSLDS\) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location.

My Post- Secondary Education

Attending a post-secondary school is very important to me and will serve as a foundation to guide my future career and personal development. College will provide the education and experiences to begin my career, make life-long friends, build a community and have new experiences. College will challenge me academically, socially and physically (I will be on the soccer team), all of which will make me a better person. I am committed to my dream to be an architect, following in the footsteps of my grandparents, who both were successful architects. I was especially influenced by my grandmother, who showed me that women can have a career, raise a family, and contribute to the community. My career path will require bachelor's and master's degrees at a minimum.

I am so fortunate with the support of my family and coach to be attending Bryn Mawr College in the fall to continue my academic learning and be part of the women's soccer program. Bryn Mawr College is a diverse, all women's liberal arts school located in the suburbs of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Bryn Mawr College meets all my interests in a college; exceptional academics, diversity, strong sense of community, and leaders who want success for women. Bryn Mawr College is part of a consortium with Haverford College, Swarthmore College, and the University of Pennsylvania (the college attended by my grandparents) where I will have an abundance of educational, social and cultural experiences. I look forward to turning my passion for architecture into a life-long purpose.

Dear Maddie,

We are pleased to provide you with the following estimated financial aid offer. Please note that this package is estimated because our costs for the 2020-2021 academic year have not yet been determined by our Board of Trustees. A revised offer will be sent to you when costs are finalized.

The following represents a breakdown of your total college budget (direct and indirect costs), your out of pocket expenses, and your sources of aid. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions about this aid offer.

Bryn Mawr offers a transformative education and we look forward to seeing all you will contribute to our community by making this life-changing investment in your future.

This offer is subject to revision based on review of new or conflicting information or documentation.

Enrolled students will be able to accept, reduce, or decline loans in late spring. First-time Federal Direct Loan borrowers must complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN) and Entrance Counseling (EC) at www.studentloans.gov using your FSA ID. Federal Loans are subject to federal loan fees. We have listed your maximum eligibility under the Federal Direct Loan program. You are encouraged to only borrow the amount you need.

Federal Work Study must be earned through work. Students who work 7-8 hours per week will typically earn around $2,000 per year. Student earnings will be paid directly to the student, not applied to a student's bill. You will learn more about working on campus during Student Orientation.

How to calculate your estimated direct costs (bill):
Total Direct Costs (billed by Bryn Mawr)	$71,540
(minus) Grants and Scholarships	-$14,035
Estimated direct costs after Grants and Scholarships	=$57,505
(minus) Student Loans on Financial Aid Award	-$5,500
Estimated direct cost after Grants, Scholarships, and Loans	=$52,005

If you have any questions regarding your financial aid offer please contact the Office of Financial Aid at finaid@brynmawr.edu or 610-526-5245 to speak to a member of the financial aid team!
