

This scholarship was established by J.M. Heberlig & B.J. Helterbran who both believe that education matters and know that it is becoming more difficult than ever to afford to reach your goals. Together with family, friends, and community, we can all accomplish great things. Jody, a High School Art Teacher, and Beth, who has worked in Recreation and Parks for over 30 years, both came from families who valued and promoted education. They benefited greatly from their support and encouragement which allowed them to expand and explore new opportunities while moving toward their goals. This scholarship is designed to be a hand-up, not a hand-out. Funds will be designated toward tuition for currently enrolled and committed college students, attending a Pennsylvania college or university. Students studying Art Education and/or Recreation and Parks will be eligible for consideration.
