▶ Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

You are not eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant because you reported that you have a bachelor's degree (Item 28) or you are working on a degree beyond a bachelor's degree (Item 47). Your Financial Aid Administrator will determine what types of federal student aid you are eligible to receive.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

Based upon data provided by the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) and your grade level, we have determined that you may have received a total amount of undergraduate student loans that is close to or equal to the loan limits established for the federal loan programs. Therefore, your eligibility for additional student loans may be limited.

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

➤ Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Total Amount of Loans Outstanding -
FFEL (Bank Loans) and/or Direct Loans:	Total Principal Balance	Remaining Amount to be Disbursed	Total
Subsidized Loans:	$18,707	$0	$18,707

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location

Dear Samuel L. Abrams Foundation Committee,

I write to inform you of my extenuating circumstances. I had planned to continue my position with Cognizant Technology Solutions through the summer before reducing my hours upon the start of my MSW program. I had planned to pay for approximately $18,000, about half of my tuition and expenses for my first year, in addition to receiving support from my employer.

Unfortunately, technology companies are also seeing losses during the pandemic and I was terminated as a result. I am looking for any scholarships that are still open, but it will still be a struggle to match the funds that I would have come up with on my own.

Thank you for your time and consideration,

Olivia Hockenbroch

Personal Essay

I want to earn a Master's in Social Work to help women facing systemic oppression, struggling with reproductive issues, or facing sexual violence. Following my college graduation, I spent 5 months working for a homeless youth center, which made a big impact on the way I see the world. I worked closely with youths from the ages of 15-25 who were homeless or in foster care and needed help to become self-sufficient. Then in my Communication Studies MA program, I focused on rhetoric of women's issues. My MA helped me see the injustices that are perpetuated by our words and the realities formed by them. Upon graduating, I spent one year working for a technology consulting company, Cognizant, with which I worked with stockholders of major global corporations. While I enjoyed the challenge of problem-solving and learning a new skill, I knew that it wasn't the right career path for me. I saw sexism in my company through role placement and project assignment on a daily basis. The company made a point to promote the idea of women in STEM, but they failed to follow-through on the practice. I had already made my decision to enroll in the MSW program at Walla Walla University before I was let go due to budget cuts because I knew that I wanted to empower and advocate for women.

What I appreciate about the Walla Walla MSW program is the focus on community. Not only do they place heavy importance on the community of students in the program, but they want their students to really give back to their communities where they live. Two weeks ago, I had an information session with a few of new professors and classmates. We took turns talking about the ways we see ourselves helping others before we transitioned to a discussion about finding practicum work. At that point, I was certain I had found the right program for my career path.
