Application Receipt Date: 11/04/2019	XXX-XX-4377 HO 01
Processed Date: 11/05/2019	EFC: 5537 *

> Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 5537. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study, and possible funding from your state and school.

Your FAFSA has been selected for a review process called verification. Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents from you and your parent(s).

There is a limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive, which is the equivalent of 6 school years. Once a total amount of Pell Grant eligibility has been received, a student can no longer receive Pell Grant aid.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

Based on your EFC of 5537, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant of up to $657 for the 2020-2021 school year provided you have not met or exceeded the lifetime limit established for the Federal Pell Grant program.

> Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System \(NSLDS\) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location

Why I Chose Nursing

I chose nursing as my future career for many reasons. The first and most important thing is my passion for helping people. There is nothing more rewarding than knowing you helped a person in need. This is exactly what nurses do. Whether it is quite literally saving someone's life or simply being a set of ears for a patient to voice their concern to. Either way, you are making a difference in that person's life and that's exactly what I want to do. Another reason nursing caught my eye was because of my drive for problem solving. Nurses have to be quick on their feet and come up with solutions for all kinds of problems. I love pushing myself to be the best I can be and having to respond to situations quickly on my feet will feed my addiction to push myself in being the best I can be. And finally, being the planner that I am, nursing caught my eye because of the job outlook and diversity. People are going to always be sick and therefore I will always have a job. I didn't want a job where I didn't feel secure. I have goals of having a family and I need to be able to support them. Along with that, I know if I ever lose interest in the field that I am in I can always switch to a new specialty. My worst fear is hating the job that I am in, but with nursing I have the freedom to choose different fields as my interests and needs change. As you can see, there are a variety of reasons I chose nursing for my future career path. Being able to help people, solve problems, and the stability of this career makes it the ideal choice for me.

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am pleased to be writing to you today on behalf of Nicole Hostler, in support of her application to the Harry N. and Melva A. Derickson Scholarship Fund. I first met Nicole as a student in my Chemistry class. She would have been a perfect student for Advanced Chemistry but scheduling of the class conflicted with the Emerging Health Professions program. She has consistently proven herself to be a bright and capable student who was a joy to have in class and will be missed upon graduation.

In class, Nicole is obviously talented and learns fairly quickly, however it is her perseverance that has most impressed me. When she is presented with a challenge, she will not shy away from it, but rather will work on it until she has a complete understanding of it. She approaches these situations in a determined and positive manner which makes it easy for her peers and I to work with her.

Nicole's interactions with her peers are also positive and productive. She has shown the ability to work well with other students of both similar and dissimilar talents in a constructive manner. She brings a good disposition and great work ethic to each group she works with, and as a result, is highly valued as a lab partner.

In brief, I'm more than happy to give Nicole Hostler my full recommendation and know that she will prove to be an asset to whatever community she may be a part of. If you require any more information, I may be reached through e-mail at btomko@greenwoodsd.org or by phone at 717-589-3117. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Brian Tomko

To Whom It May Concern:

It's an absolute pleasure to write a letter of recommendation for Nicole Hostler as a candidate for a scholarship opportunity with your organization. Over the last six years, I have been impressed by Nicole's academic achievements and leadership roles she has taken on outside of the classroom. I am confident she will be an asset to her post-secondary institution and apply the same enthusiasm to her studies in pursuit of a career in the medical field.

I first met Nicole as a seventh grader in my Social Studies class and she made an immediate impression as a conscientious and inquisitive student. I had the pleasure at Greenwood to teach Nicole for three total years, in seventh, ninth, and tenth grade. Throughout those years, she proved to be a leader in my classroom and set a wonderful example for her classmates with her tremendous work ethic. Nicole's hard work has rewarded her as she has been inducted as a member of Greenwood High School's National Honor Society and Greenwood High School's Spanish National Honor Society, all while balancing many leadership roles in extracurricular activities. This year, Nicole has taken on an important first step in achieving her post-secondary goals in participating in Messiah College's Emerging Health Professions programs, which includes classes three days a week at Messiah and two days a week shadowing at local hospitals.

In addition to Nicole's many academic accomplishments, she also is an active member of her school community. She is involved in several school sponsored organizations and still makes time to work a part-time job. Her participation and effort in the Future Farmers of America, Future Business Leaders of America, Greenwood's Swing Choir, and Mini-Thon have made Greenwood a better place. Nicole was a key member of the Mini-Thon fundraising effort at Greenwood, raising money to support children with pediatric cancer. On weekends, she works at a local coffee shop whose mission is to give employment opportunities to people with various disabilities. She truly does it all! Nicole's ability to balance academics, extracurricular activities, and a job on the side speaks volumes to her strong work ethic.

Nicole is a confident young woman who is poised, intelligent, and articulate. Her passion for helping others is contagious and I am excited to support her as she moves into the next chapter of her life. Seldom have I been able to recommend someone without reservation. It is my pleasure to do so for Nicole.

Sincerely,
Tiffani M. Fry
