Electronic Student Aid Report (SAR)

The SAR summarizes the information you submitted on your 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

XXX-XX-4281 JI 03 Application Receipt Date: 12/10/2019 Processed Date: 02/06/2020 EFC: 0 * DRN: 9680

Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 0. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study, and possible funding from your state and school.

Your FAFSA has been selected for a review process called verification. Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents from you and your parent(s).

There is a limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive, which is the equivalent of 6 school years. Once a total amount of Pell Grant eligibility has been received, a student can no longer receive Pell Grant aid.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

Based on your EFC of 0, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant of up to $6,195 for the 2020-2021 school year provided you have not met or exceeded the lifetime limit established for the Federal Pell Grant program.

Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location.

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1845-0001. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 5 to 10 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. The obligation to respond to this collection is voluntary. If you have comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, please contact the Federal Student Aid Information Center, P.O. Box 84, Washington, D.C. 20044 directly.

We may request additional information from you to process your application more efficiently. We will collect this additional information only as needed and on a voluntary basis.

By answering questions 101a through 101t, and signing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, you give permission to the U.S. Department of Education to provide information from your application to the college(s) you entered. You also agree that such information is deemed to incorporate by reference the certification statement on the sign and submit page of the financial aid application. The certification statement can be viewed at StudentAid.gov/2021/help/certification-statement.

WARNING: If you are convicted of drug distribution or possession for an offense that occurred while you were receiving Title IV aid, your eligibility for Title IV student financial aid is subject to suspension or termination. If your drug conviction status changes at any time during the 2020-2021 award year, you must update your answer to the drug conviction affecting eligibility question.

Having a goal orientated life can be both good and bad. Good, is that the future is nearly planned. There is a path the individual has made so he can walk on it. Bad, is that when there is something interfering the path, the individual may not know what to do, or completely forget that there is a world around his path, and it is good to have other things in his life. That is how I felt before, thinking a path made means complete success. However, without the other things in life, I began to feel incomplete. In high school, I am now in a few clubs and sports, including National Honors Society (NHS), Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), Student Council, Cross Country, and Track and Field. Being in these clubs helped me develop social skills as well as leadership skills. Because of these clubs, one of my favorite actives is to go out to the community and help others. I have over 40 hours of community service, and I am happy to say there are more that are not logged because I went and did the hours in my own time for fun. My future goal is to become a successful business leader, and being in FBLA helped me discover my interest in business. During conferences with other schools (State Leadership Conference), I networked with others with the same mindset and formed an amazing group of friends who shared the same goals and ambitions as I do. Being involved is important, because sometimes it can be life-changing.

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure to highly recommend Cindy Jiang for the opportunity to receive your G. Thomas Balsbaugh Memorial Scholarship. Cindy is a determined student who always goes above and beyond what she is asked to do. It has been wonderful this school year getting to know Cindy both academically and as a person. Cindy displays great qualities that make her a great asset to Middletown Area School District. As a student at Middletown she is very attentive, punctual, respectful and responsible. She has strong moral character which defines her as a person and in return is well liked and respected by her peers.

Academically, Cindy always displays consistent eagerness and willingness to learn. She has strong leadership qualities and is a great example of a role model to other students in the school. She welcomes new challenges with determination. As a result, the completion of her challenges is always shown consistently and in excellent quality with school pride.

Cindy is a member of the National Honor Society and involved within the community serving over forty hours of volunteer service. Cindy also participates in clubs throughout the school serving for both FBLA (Future Business Leaders of America) and Student Council. Cindy also is a key contributor to the Cross Country and Track & Field sport programs for the school. The above listed alone demonstrates Cindy's commitment to excellence not only with her education but within the community. Cindy would be an excellent candidate to receive your scholarship.

I highly recommend Cindy Jiang for the opportunity to receive your scholarship as she is very deserving. There is no doubt that Cindy will continue her path of excellence and not only continue to uphold the P.R.I.D.E. of Middletown (Perseverance, Respect, Integrity, Determination and Excellence,) but also to continue to lead by example as a role model and displaying strong character. The characteristics that Cindy possesses are certainly qualities that assist her in earning this scholarship.

Please feel free to email me at: jrytel@raiderweb.org or call me at (724) 630-1364 if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Joshua C. Rytel M.Ed.

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my pleasure and honor to recommend Cindy Jiang for the Thomas Balsbaugh Memorial Scholarship. I have known Cindy since the start of the 2019-2020 school year and have been delighted to serve as her Business Teacher at Middletown Area High School. After reading through the criteria required for this scholarship, I strongly believe that you would struggle to find a student more deserving of this particular scholarship than Cindy.

Throughout my time spent with Cindy, she has demonstrated all of the qualities the scholarship committee is looking for. One occasion in particular that really stands out to me, even to this day, is when she first transferred to MAHS from her previous school. I was informed of the fact that I would be receiving a new student and that she already had prior experience with Accounting, but I had no idea to what extent. Once Cindy had arrived, we concluded that she was actually slightly ahead of where my students were; but it's what she offered next that shocked me. Although she had already completed the first two chapters at her previous school, she offered to go back and do all of the practice problems that my students had already done in order to receive credit and to help boost her grade. The Monday after she made this offer, she came to class and showed me that she had completed the problems correctly. Her work was thorough and no mistakes had been made.

On a personal level, Cindy is a young woman of strong character who fully embodies all of the traits that you are looking for in potential candidates. Specifically, I was astounded by her academic potential, as well as her strong sense of school and community. At her previous school, Cindy earned first place as a runner while competing for an Athletic Scholarship. She was also a member of the Band, Color Guard, Students Against Drunk Driving and Prom and Decision Day. Currently, at MAHS, Cindy is a member of the National Honor Society, Future Business Leaders of America, Cross Country, Track and Field and Student Council. Throughout her high school career, Cindy has also completed over forty hours of community service. Lastly, last year, in 2019 she also eared second place for FBLA's Advertising Competition.

Overall, Cindy is a very resourceful student, with great problem-solving skills, who always contributes great ideas for our class and our school. I have absolutely no reservations about recommending Cindy for this scholarship. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions regarding her character, past academic work, or any other qualifications related to this scholarship.

Sincerely,
