Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Financial Need

Estimated total cost Temple University Fall 2020 (books not included)	$34,124
Offered University grant and aid	- 6,262
Parents can afford $7,000 out of pocket/year (older sister also in college)	- 7,000

That leaves approximately $20,862 of demonstrated need. I will try to pay it off with loans, work, etc. but that will be extremely difficult to handle over four years. I will also have to fund two additional years of schooling post-grad working towards a master's in Speech-Language Pathology.

Inspiration for my Future Plans

I plan on receiving my master's degree in either audiology or speech-language pathology. I have been influenced by my grandfather, who had been deaf for over sixty years until he received his cochlear implants. I also have a desire to assist the disadvantaged. I have been a member (now current president) of VolunTEEN, a club based on community outreach, since freshman year. I work with my co-captains to organize and attend all the events. I also spread the message of the club to my peers by encouraging them to get involved. Another act of volunteerism I take part in is tutoring students at Nye Elementary. This is my third year participating in this activity. I also participate in many activities regarding the intellectually and developmentally disabled community, including volunteering with Best Buddies, TOPSoccer, Special Olympics, Life Skills Field Day, and as a speech therapy classroom intern at South Hanover Elementary. I feel that these are the most meaningful. Assisting the children involved in these organizations has been some of the most heartwarming experiences I have ever been a part of. By doing this work, I hope to assist members of the community, but I believe it is equally as important to encourage and influence my peers and give them the opportunity to learn the incalculable value of giving. I have plans to play an impactful role in improving the wellbeing of others as a speech therapist. I want to provide people with the indispensable gift of communication. Realistically I am not sure if I will be working in a school, hospital, or other practice, but wherever I am my main goal with the career is to alleviate stress in others' lives. I take a lot of pride in my efforts to make a difference in the lives of others, and I feel that it yields many rewards, which is something I hope to carry into my future with my career and personal life.

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept this as a letter of recommendation for Ryan Klingensmith as she endeavors to achieve the G. Thomas Balsbaugh Memorial Scholarship Fund. Ryan was a student in my AP Language and Composition class her junior year, as well as an officer for NEHS under my advisement. As a student, she successfully carried an ambitious academic schedule in addition to many other interests. She has proven her intellectual prowess, dedication and discipline to her learnings throughout the course. Evident upon meeting Ryan is her great sense of responsibility and respect towards others.

As a student her junior year, Ryan displayed characteristics of a strong, motivated learner and leader. During class she emerged as a serious student with a conscientious work ethic. Her reflective class discussion added an element of insightful, creative thinking while analyzing traditional and contemporary texts. Miss Klingensmith wrote ambitiously in both critical and creative forms of composition while discussing Calvinism, Transcendentalism, and Naturalism, stressing elements of rhetorical strategies, organization, and argument within the nonfiction of the period. She also participated in an intensive study of an American Literature novel. Throughout the school year she displayed an interest and penchant for the Language Arts. Ryan also revealed cooperation and respect while working with others during projects and group discussions, helping them to make deeper connections between the literal aspects of the literature, repeatedly challenging herself to find deeper, analytical connections to the literature and philosophies discussed in class.

Along with her academic accomplishments, Ryan is serious about her future endeavors as she expertly manages membership in honor societies, tutoring experiences and excels as a student scholar athlete. Diligently navigating her schedule, Ryan's warmth and self-assuredness makes her a treasured friend and leader. She displays an open, polite demeanor, which endears her to her peers and teachers alike.

Miss Klingensmith is a young lady of great perseverance and potential who is sincere, conscientious, benevolent and courteous. This makes her an excellent addition to any higher learning institution.

Sincerely,

Melanie May

Mr. Chad R. Lister, Educator

To whom it may concern:

It is with confidence that I compose this letter of recommendation for Ryan Klingensmith. I first had the opportunity to meet Miss Klingensmith as a sophomore at Lower Dauphin High School in my Advanced Placement government class; additionally I have had the opportunity to work with Miss Klingensmith as a leader in the school in my capacity as an advisor for several organizations. Miss Klingensmith has demonstrated herself as a strong academic student who participates in organizations and athletics.

I believe one of Miss Klingensmith's strongest attributes is her ability to budget her time wisely to accomplish various activities. Miss Klingensmith is President of VolunTEENs at Lower Dauphin High School. Unlike some organizations this positions requires the ability to work with community members, her peers in high school, and school administration. VolunTEENs organizes and participates in five major events each year. One of the largest is hosting a free dance for the Senior Citizens of our Community. I have had the opportunity to see Miss Klingensmith develop her leadership skills in the 2019 school year. She has revamped the organization of the club with her willingness to share authority with her Board of Directors, but recognizing she is responsible for overseeing the organization. In addition to Miss Klingensmith's commitment in VolunTEENs she volunteers as a tutor for elementary students and participates in several honor societies at the high school.

In addition to her involvement with organizations Miss Klingensmith is a two sport athlete, soccer and track, both of which she serves as captain. Miss Klingensmith's work ethic in academics, sports, and school involvement demonstrate her sound character and abilities. As a former coach, Miss Klingensmith is a coachable individual not only on the athletic field, but also in the academic arena and life in general. In addition to her own athletic endeavors she finds time to give back to youth sports programs by volunteering to coach elementary age children.

As a father of a young daughter, I would be proud to have Miss Klingensmith serve as a role model for my daughter. Miss Klingensmith leads by example and, in my opinion, does not grasp the respect she has from her peers or teachers. I am sure Miss Klingensmith's abilities as a leader in school, community, and athletics will continue to develop.

If you have, additional questions please feel free to contact me.

Chil R. Kieta Respectfully,

Chad R. Lister, MLS, MA
