Electronic Student Aid Report (SAR)

The SAR summarizes the information you submitted on your 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Application Receipt Date:	10/04/2019	XXX-XX-6279 LA 02
Processed Date:	12/30/2019	EFC: 0
		DRN: 3146

Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 0. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study, and possible funding from your state and school.

There is a limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive, which is the equivalent of 6 school years. Once a total amount of Pell Grant eligibility has been received, a student can no longer receive Pell Grant aid.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

Be sure to review the items marked with a 'h' and make any corrections if necessary by clicking 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page.

We assumed certain information to calculate your eligibility for federal student aid. We printed the assumption we made and a 'h' for each of these items. If our assumptions are correct, do not change them. If they are incorrect, you need to make the necessary corrections by clicking 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page.

We assumed you did not file and will not file a 2018 income tax return (Item 32). Review this item.

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

Based on your EFC of 0, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant of up to $6,195 for the 2020-2021 school year provided you have not met or exceeded the lifetime limit established for the Federal Pell Grant program.

Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System \(NSLDS\) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location.

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1845-0001. The obligation to respond to this collection is voluntary. If you have comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, please contact the Federal Student Aid Information Center, P.O. Box 84, Washington, D.C. 20044 directly.

We may request additional information from you to process your application more efficiently. We will collect this additional information only as needed and on a voluntary basis.

By answering questions 101a through 101t, and signing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, you give permission to the U.S. Department of Education to provide information from your application to the college(s) you entered. If your drug conviction status changes at any time during the 2020-2021 award year, you must update your answer to the drug conviction affecting eligibility question.

I always thought that I was going to be a professional soccer player growing up. It was my dream to continue playing a sport that I loved so much as my job in the future. That eventually ended as I started to play other sports and lost interest. My next dream was to be an artist. I know, I know, not too creative, but art was my new favorite thing. Whether it was origami in the fourth-grade talent show or drawing late at night with my little sister.

It was not until I was a little bit older that I figured out what I wanted to do for the rest of my life. In 2012, my grandfather was diagnosed with colon cancer. He was receiving chemotherapy treatment to help cure his stage four cancer. Unfortunately, a nurse misplaced the decimal while administering him the medication. All of the chemo he was supposed to get in 46 hours, was pushed into his fragile body in as little as 4.6 hours. This is what made me decide that I wanted to work in the medical field. I love the thought of helping people and will never leave a problem unsolved. The nurse's mistake made me realize that an innocent error can be fatal and, with the proper organization, could have been prevented. Accountability is so important in life and this accident is the main reason I decided to pursue in the health profession. I am determined to give my best effort individually and will not hesitate to be double checked if ever unsure.

Greetings,

Haleigh Lackner had been an exceptional student in Algebra II (High School). Haleigh, being always prepared for class, would circumspectly and patiently help others around her learn the material. While daily working in groups, I could rely on Haleigh's 'lead from the pack' nature to ensure her group proffered remarkable results every time.

In reference to Haleigh's résumé, please understand that her accomplishments are humbly listed with neither embellishment nor gloss. Reading between the lines, it should be obvious that Haleigh has a positive and very profound impact on those around her. She is a natural motivator and leader. Haleigh is honest with her praise of others yet never seeks any for herself. She always ensures that her team feels good about themselves and each other. Trust that coming from Haleigh, her achievements and experience will be greatly understated in keeping with her nature.

Should you give Haleigh Lackner the highest consideration for any endeavor or vocation she wishes to pursue or any college or university within which she desires matriculation, I'm sure that her achievements will be as rewarding for the employer or institution as it is for Haleigh. After observing her for a year, I am certain that Haleigh will always bolster the breadth, depth and positive results of every group she enters, every enterprise she undertakes and in every program which she partakes. As such, I am nominating her for the THOMAS BALSBAUGH SCHOLARSHIP.

Thank-you for Your Time,

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my privilege to write this recommendation for Delaney Lackner. I have been fortunate to coach Delaney on the Central Dauphin High School Girls' Basketball team for the last 4 seasons while also getting to know her as a student in the school. She is finishing her senior year at CD high school and has displayed the leadership and work ethic that every coach hopes for from his players. In the classroom, she has excelled, while off the court she has participated in numerous community service activities. Delaney has shown to be a young woman of character, kindness, intelligence, and talent

Delaney is an extremely hard working student athlete. She never takes a day off and is always ready to play. She is also a very determined player who has work tirelessly to improve her weaknesses and build on her strengths to earn her valuable position on the team. She loves to play the game and is adored by her teammates and coaching staff because of her unselfishness, toughness and positive attitude.

Delaney is also an outstanding student. She has challenged herself with high level classes while always being on the honor roll. Besides being part of the basketball team, Delaney has participated in both the Key club and Pre-Med club. Delaney has also become a licensed barber. I appreciate how focused she is on her goals and the hard work she puts in to achieve her goals.

Off the court, you will not find a brighter and more delightful person to be around than Delaney Lackner. She goes out of her way to treat people the right way and gets along with everyone she meets. She has participated in numerous community service projects such as the Children's' Miracle Network, delivering Subs to the Ronald McDonald House, and participating in the color run

I strongly believe that Delaney Lackner would be a very deserving candidate for any future endeavors. I encourage you to give Delaney strong consideration for any opportunity she pursues.

Sincerely,

Randolph A. Gambelunghe
