Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Total Amount of Loans Outstanding -

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location.

Educational and Career Goals

The Foundation for Enhancing Communities Scholarship

During my time at Dickinson, I have begun pursuing a bachelor's degree in neuroscience and continue to engage with clubs, service opportunities, and employment opportunities that bring me into the medical community. I am deeply interested in ensuring that everyone has access to affordable, high-quality healthcare. I have begun this pursuit by participating in Neuroscience Club and by going on a public health service trip to Nashville. On this trip, we worked with Project CURE, sorting medical supplies, and United Cerebral Palsy, building wheelchair ramps, to make healthcare more accessible. In the spring of 2021, I hope to study abroad in Copenhagen, Denmark, where they have universal healthcare. Witnessing the actions being taken by governments that have adopted this system firsthand, especially in the light of the recent Coronavirus outbreak, will be enlightening and could help inform me upon my return to the American healthcare system. These opportunities that I have had and will have provide me the opportunity to meet many new people in a wide range of fields, which has helped to guide my understanding of the medical field. Thus, I have decided that I would like to pursue a master's degree and become a physician assistant upon graduation from Dickinson College. I have always had an interest in epidemiology and healthcare, and it is deeply important to me to be involved in the healthcare system where I can make a difference in the lives of patients. Additionally, it will allow me to determine which facets of our current healthcare system work and which do not, allowing me to further advocate for all citizens of the United States.

To the Selection Committee:

I have known Emily since the beginning of the Fall, 2019 semester when she was enrolled in my lecture, laboratory and writing in discipline course (NRSC 200). I believe her intellect, maturity and dedication to learning make her an ideal candidate for your scholarship.

Academically, Emily is very strong. Other than two "B+" grades, Emily has received an "A" or "A-" in all of her courses here at Dickinson. Last semester, Emily performed well above average on all of my exams, including on the cumulative final. She has a great ability to synthesize material, understand basic and complex problems, and convey those ideas back in a clear, concise and well-written manner. Emily always arrived to class earlier, was fully prepared to learn, and was an active participant in asking and answering questions during the lecture. In addition, because of her outstanding academic accomplishments prior to her taking my class, I chose Emily to be the student note taker for the semester. Undoubtedly, the students receiving these notes were provided with clear and informative information that helped them throughout the semester.

Emily also is a well-accomplished writer. Throughout the semester, students had two laboratory reports assigned, as well as the task of being a peer reviewer for multiple reports from their classmates. Both of Emily's reports were well written and it is clear that she understands how to generate an informative introduction and a thorough discussion. Importantly, Emily did a fantastic job finding appropriate background material that supported her ideas, her results, and her conclusions. In addition, Emily provided great feedback to her peers regarding their writing, as well. Again, her strong work ethic not only demonstrated her abilities, but also helped others in the class.

Emily was excellent in the laboratory setting. Her enthusiasm for learning skills and techniques was obvious. She definitely was excited to "get her hands dirty"—whether it was learning how to remove and section brains from mice, collect and analyze behavioral data, or perform ovariectomies. She followed directions well, asked questions when she wanted clarification and always put forth her best effort. Emily was always appreciative of the experiences and came away from the class with a basic understanding of many neuroscience methods.

Outside of the classroom, Emily belongs to many clubs and actively participates in all, demonstrating that she is a well-rounded individual that can manage her time quite effectively. One of her jobs is to guide students through our "Red Devil Shadow Days", where a prospective student spends a day with a current student, following the student to classes, meals and activities. As Emily brought students to our class, I was able to witness how she engaged with these individuals. I heard her ask good questions of them, making them feel comfortable and heard. I find Emily to be quite mature and she stands apart from her peers with the way in which she approaches her time at Dickinson. It is very clear that she is dedicated to her studies, wants to excel in all that she does, but knows how to have down time and enjoy herself, as well.

Overall, Emily is an outstanding student. She works hard and is incredibly conscientious, mature, well spoken, thoughtful, and intelligent. I have no doubt of her continued success, both at Dickinson and beyond and I highly recommend her for your scholarship.

Sincerely,

Meredith A Rauhut, Ph.D. Visiting Assistant Professor
