New Cumberland, PA 17070-2244

Dear Divine,

Congratulations! On behalf of the faculty and staff, I am delighted to offer you admission to York College of Pennsylvania. You have also been admitted to the Nursing (Fall Clinical - 9 semesters) program for Fall 2020, and we welcome you to the Spartan community. You should be proud of this accomplishment because you were selected from a very talented pool of candidates.

From your application, we notice that you have challenged yourself academically, taking advanced courses throughout your high school career. Your continued hard work and dedication to learning will serve you well as a member of the York College family.

Now is an especially good time to be a student at York. Chartered in 1787, York has a rich history of educating students with a commitment to provide extraordinary educational experiences inside and outside of the classroom. Here, you get to know faculty members in small class settings, and the college is large enough to provide you the same opportunities as from a major university with nationally known academic programs, 23 NCAA Division III sports, world-class arts and cultural programs, more than 110 clubs and organizations, leadership and engagement programs, and much more. More than 90% of our graduates are employed and/or in graduate school within months of graduation! Should you wish to change your academic program selection, please contact your admission counselor.

Divine, we are excited about your joining us as part of the Class of 2024. To reserve your seat, please submit your deposit and follow the next steps on the enclosed personalized informational sheet.

From day one, you will find your educational home with the York College community. I look forward to welcoming you to campus and getting to know you over the next few years! Again, congratulations!

Sincerely,

Dr. Daniel J. Green
Vice President of Enrollment Management

➤ Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System \(NSLDS\) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

The Passion In Her Eyes

My name is Divine Maboundou. I am a senior at Cedar Cliff High School. I am planning on attending college at York College of Pennsylvania this fall. I have known that I want to be in the nursing profession since I was a sophomore in high school.

I decided to be a nurse because I have an unbreaking passion for people, I believe that everyone should feel cared for, safe, and heard. Most people are in one of the scariest moments of their life when they go to a hospital, depending on the circumstance. I want to be there to soothe their anxieties. I wish to be an advocate for my patients when they are most vulnerable. Especially now, during this pandemic, healthcare providers are on the front lines. I long to be on the front lines right along with them, fighting this deadly virus. I want to help in any way that I can and I feel that I, personally, can best do that by becoming a nurse. I remember my sophomore year when I had surgery and the nurses were so kind to me. They made me feel safe and dramatically reduced my anxiety about anesthesia. I crave to be a glimmer of hope for my patients like those nurses were for me.

Dear Sir/ Madam,

It has come to my attention that Divine Maboundou is for the Roberta L. Houpt Scholarship. I have had the pleasure to serve as her Biology Teacher at Cedar Cliff High School. Knowing Divine for the past three years, she is one of those students that you know will succeed in whatever she strives to do.

Academically, Divine has performed admirably. As an educator, what impresses me most about Divine is her maturity for learning. She continually strives for both rigor and success. Divine meets every opportunity with vigor and passion. She never ceases to amaze me with her passion in Science. Her passion in this area is apparent with the courses she has taken: Physical Science Level 1, Biology Level 1, Quantitative Chemistry and Biology II Anatomy and Physiology.

In addition, Divine is well liked by her peers and is extremely respectful to them as well as her teachers. She is truly a good role model for the CCHS student body as well as her community. Her traits have afforded her the opportunity to be involved with various activities such as French Club, Bible Club, and Dance Club. Outside of school Divine babysits and two years ago she went on a Missions Trip to Atlanta, Georgia. As one can see she is an extremely personable individual who will succeed in many facets of life.

Undeniably, Divine is a fantastic individual! Her diligence and character are the pillars of her mature demeanor. Even with maintaining success in and out of the classroom, she is still extremely polite and responsible. I implore you to seriously consider Divine for the Roberta L. Houpt Scholarship Fund. This is student that I know would give it her all and more! Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Danielle Eisner

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend Divine Maboundou for consideration to the Roberta L. Houpt Scholarship Fund. As a student in my AP English Literature and Composition class during her junior year, Divine demonstrated her altruistic side by helping several of her peers to comprehend material. She is an eager scholar who enjoys learning new material, debating social issues, and maintaining meticulous notes. During the fall semester, she was dual enrolled in my English 101 course through Harrisburg Area Community College, which also awarded high school credit for College Composition 1. She honed her skills with academic compositions in a variety of modes. In addition to her intellectual and compositional capabilities, she is a diligent and conscientious worker.

Divine has challenged herself throughout her school career, taking numerous demanding AP and advanced classes. She is exploring her intended major by taking Anatomy and Physiology courses through Messiah College. She has also glimpsed her future through job shadowing and internships at both UPMC and Penn State Hershey nursing programs.

She is involved in numerous clubs, most importantly as senior class co-president, where she oversees fundraising and organizes high-visibility events, such as the school's prom. Her organizational skills and ability to lead through example propel her toward successful endeavors in this role.

As she pursues a future in nursing, I have complete confidence that Divine will excel at her studies. I have no doubt she will continue to progress intellectually and as a leader throughout college as she pursues her goals. If you need additional information, please contact me using the information below.

Sincerely,
