Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Alexis Martin – Letter of Extenuating Circumstances

Due to COVID-19, I just became unemployed as of last week. This is creating a financial struggle for me, since I am 100% responsible to pay for my college and have been saving up for it.

Alexis Martin – TFEC Scholarship Essay

I have always wanted to go to college. I remember learning as a child that you could grow up to be anything you wanted to be, as long as you were willing to work hard and put in the effort. During high school, I set the goal to receive excellent grades in my AP and college courses, and I excelled in each class. My next future goal is to thrive in nursing school. I believe a degree in nursing will be the perfect fit for me, as I will never lose my drive to succeed, and I will continue pushing myself to be a better person and to care for the world around me.

My dedication to academics in high school has reflected what I can accomplish in my future career. I plan to receive my BSN, and specialize in pediatrics, NICU, or labor & delivery. After that, I plan to continue my education and eventually attend medical school.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am very pleased to recommend Alexis Martin for the TFEC Scholarship. I have known Alexis since the beginning of the 2017-2018 school year, as her Honors Chemistry teacher, and then had the opportunity to see her develop during the 2019-2020 school year as her Human Biology teacher. As a student and school citizen, Alexis has made a significant impression on me in regards to her outstanding academic performance, sophisticated classroom and leadership behaviors, and extraordinary and mature character exhibited throughout all of her endeavors.

As a sophomore, Alexis consistently outperformed her peers in Honors Chemistry class, achieving one of the highest grades possible; she was one of the top ranked chemistry students in her graduating class. Her attention to detail during lessons, dedication to practice, and quick application to new problems and situations, contributed to her superior academic performance in chemistry. Currently, Alexis has the highest grade in Human Biology, a college course offered through dual enrollment and is much more rigorous compared to the rest of the science courses in which students can enroll. At the beginning of the year, Alexis immediately exhibited advanced course preparation skills. While most students learn how to succeed in a college course after months (or years) of practice, she quickly demonstrated the ability to strategically prepare for a class of great rigor. In fact, after my request, she humbly shared her notetaking strategies and studying techniques with her peers to further improve their efforts. The quality of Alexis's work thoroughly amazes me, which exemplifies the high academic expectations she has for herself.

Alexis's work ethic in the classroom and her endeavors is top notch and she is highly regarded by her peers, teachers, and mentors. Her maturity far exceeds the majority of students in high school and my conversation with her is always meaningful, sophisticated, and advanced. She is a model student, with wonderful morals, demonstrating traits of self-discipline, reliability, and responsibility. While some students quickly dismiss the extra work required at home, she continues to persevere and invest hours each week ensuring she masters difficult content; this is with a full plate of activities and work and family obligations. Her strong organizational and time management skills, along with her respectfulness and commitment to helping others, have helped her excel in all of her endeavors. She is kindhearted and dedicated to service, which has allowed her to be a leader who peers, coworkers, and mentors alike can rely on for support and assistance.

Alexis Martin is the ideal candidate for the TFEC Scholarship! She will go above and beyond to meet the challenge and rigor that an intense nursing program has to offer. If her performance as my student is any indication of the amount of energy she will invest in her educational experience, then Alexis will be a positive recipient for this scholarship. I am honored she has chosen me to write this recommendation!

Sincerely,

Emma Capriotti Lebo Honors Chemistry Teacher & Human Biology Teacher
