> Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Honor means putting somebody or something on a pedestal for doing something good or having a special significance that impacted your community. The term is always used in a positive setting to highlight great achievements. Furthermore, honorable is the belief in doing the right thing even when you do not achieve all your goals. As a Lincoln University student, I face a variety of challenges and based on how I react to these difficult times defines how honorable I am as an active student.

Indeed, having a sense of honor motivates me to graduate from Lincoln University with my Bachelor of Arts Degree in Strategic Communications and Spanish, then after, I will continue my studies for my Masters at Temple University. Exploring plays an important role in my life. I am interested in experiencing and learning more about Spanish speaking cultures and how I can connect my work ethic while studying abroad this fall semester in Granada, Spain. Earning a college degree will help advance my skills, knowledge and achieve my future goals to work for a big corporation in their Public Relations Department, while travelling to connect and work with different parts of the world. In light of this semester, I became involved in our campus step team known as, Reconstruction, I have done volunteer work at the Neighborhood Center of The United Methodist Church, along with upholding my position as Historian in McLaney House Quarters Area Council. I am well organized and a people person, I enjoy being involved in any task at hand. I am still learning, that I will have some setbacks but working hard and maintaining dedication to my studies will allow me to overcome obstacles in my life now and in the future.
