Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

How I got here

Throughout my high school career, I have continuously sought out the most interesting classes and nursing programs my community has to offer. Of those experiences, the "Inspired Nursing" program I attended at the Penn State Medical Center this past February, was foundational in my pursuit of nursing education. The program included a panel discussion with current nurses within the hospital, a hospital tour, and a sim lab experience. The nurses we spoke to were so passionate about what they did and, although they all had the same degree, they had each found their niche within the medical community. Listening to them speak, I could see myself in their shoes in the future. Some of them traveled across the country, others worked in the same local hospital day after day, while others cared for patients across the world. The potential to travel, but still maintain a steady career, is incredibly important to me. I was motivated by what a nursing career has to offer: the opportunity to care for others in a setting with unmatched professional diversity.

After the program, I wanted to learn everything about nursing and patient care - from how the body digests food to how to draw blood with minimal pain. Everything fascinated me; I craved to learn and explore more. As a result of my experience at "Inspired Nursing," I enrolled in AP Biology, and I am beginning to scratch the surface of what I can learn about the human body and its cells. I will also be participating in an "Extreme Nursing" program which is being held at a local hospital. The program will allow me to gain more experience and exposure within the expanding field of nursing. Both programs will provide a strong foundation; however, there is much more I am eager to learn.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please accept this letter of recommendation for Alexis Moodie, a well-rounded senior at Hershey High School. Alexis has what it takes to attain many great achievements and the Roberta L. Houpt Scholarship will help her along her path.

I first met Alexis when my girlfriend, now wife, used to babysit her and her sister when Alexis was in elementary school. Alexis was always very outgoing and confident in her abilities. She also showed kindness and maturity. When she got to the high school, she enrolled into my Accounting I class. Alexis was always extremely focused and goal-oriented. She is a hard working, self-motivated student who always performed at the peak of her abilities. While focusing on her goals, Alexis maintains a pleasant personality and relates well to her peers and educators. She demonstrates a desirable work ethic while maintaining a high grade point average. She continued to pursue her business interests by taking Accounting II last year. Alexis has mastered the business fundamentals to become a successful young businesswoman while maintaining focus on advanced business tactics to help her succeed in her career.

Alexis exemplifies an outstanding young woman inside and outside of the classroom. She can be seen on the soccer field, where she was selected captain of the Hershey Girls Soccer team during her senior year. She has been a 3-year starter in goal, helping lead and motivate the team. Alexis can also be seen on the basketball court, where she excels as a member of the Hershey Girls Basketball team. Finally, she is a member of the Link Crew, helping freshmen students get acquainted to high school. Alexis has worked very hard at her activities in order to gain the full benefits of her high school experience.

In the community, Alexis has stayed active by participating in the Girl Scouts of America. She has completed both the silver and bronze awards, and has acquired the Presidential Award for Volunteer Service. She organizes many events for her troop as well as supervises younger scouts during activities. Alexis also provides childcare services for many families in her neighborhood. Alexis has shown countless times in the community that she is a very responsible and trustworthy individual.

Through her various activities, Alexis Moodie has grown into a deserving young woman that exemplifies many fine leadership qualities. She is ready to take the next step of her life and the Roberta L. Houpt Scholarship would be a fine addition to propel herself into her successful career.

Sincerely,

I am writing to express my praise for Alexis Moodie, an applicant for the Roberta L. Houpt Scholarship. I have taught Alexis for the entirety of her senior year, and through interactions with her in and out of the classroom have gotten to know her quite well. I can say with great confidence that she is one of the finest student I have in class this year, and based on her academics and service record she is most worthy for scholarship consideration.

Academically, Alexis is absolutely in the upper echelon at Hershey. She has been a standout student in my AP Psychology class all year long, currently holding an unweighted 95% for the year. Many students are cognitively gifted enough to excel, but Alexis also has the added of layer of a genuine intellectual curiosity. She asks deep, probing questions, works extremely hard, and is intrinsically motivated to excel for her own betterment, not just the grades and accolades. Overall, she is a stellar student and probably the most active and motivated participant in her particular class.

Beyond the classroom, Alexis is just as impressive. She is a standout three-sport athlete, yet NEVER lets athletics interfere with her classroom performance, a true testament to both her time management skills and maturity. Further, she is active in the school in a genuine way. That is to say, her lengthy resume of clubs and activities is not just "for show," as I know first-hand that her volunteerism is genuine and heartfelt. After 23 years teaching high schoolers, it isn't too difficult to separate the true altruists from the kids who are simply "padding their resume," and Alexis certainly qualifies as a young woman of high character who is genuinely committed to service.

It has been my absolute pleasure to teach and get to know Alexis. She is an outstanding student, active in many school groups and community service endeavors, and in general shows excellent character. She is genuinely one of the most well rounded student athletes that I have ever taught, and I highly recommend that you give her your most serious consideration, as she is no doubt worthy of this scholarship opportunity. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Peter H. Steelman AP Psychology Teacher Hershey High School psteelman@hershey.k12.pa.us 717-531-2244
