Throughout my life I have volunteered in and served my community in different ways. Every experience that I have had has taught me a lot about myself, and I plan on continuing to volunteer in my future.

For the past six years I have been a student leader at my dance studio. A student leader is a current student who helps in one of the younger level classes. This experience combines my love for dance with my desire to mentor the next generation. From my own experience of striving to do my best and become the best dancer I can be, I seek to be a good role model, demonstrating how to achieve goals through hard work and perseverance. Knowing how these students look to me as an example inspires me to make good choices outside of the studio as well. They have also taught me to find joy in the little things. The kids always come into class with a smile on their face, ready to learn. Whether it's a silly prank, or a student who finally perfects a difficult move after weeks of hard work, I always leave happier than when I came in.

I am also a third grade Sunday School leader at my church, as well as a co-leader of the eighth grade girls in our middle school youth group. I have grown up in the church where I lead, so many people have poured into my life and been amazing role models and mentors for me throughout my childhood. I wanted to be able to give back and do the same for other groups of kids. I have been with my third grade group for six years. They take what they learn on Sunday mornings, find creative ways to apply it to their lives, and come back the next week with stories to tell. This inspires me to strive to learn new things and pushes me to improve myself as a human being. I enjoy mentoring my eighth grade girls as well. Since I am only four years older, I relate to them a lot. I hope to be a good example, as well as someone that they can come to who has just gone through the things that they are experiencing. Middle school isn't an easy time for anyone, and I like knowing that I can be there for these teens who are going through the struggles of adolescent life.

While I won't have the same opportunities to serve next year, I plan to find new ways to serve my community. I will be attending Messiah College where I know there are opportunities to serve the surrounding community. I would also love to go back to my home church and lead in the high school youth group after my freshman year. I am grateful that my community has done so much for me, and I want to give back to the people who have helped shape me into who I am today.

Dear Scholarship Committee:

It is with great pride that I write this letter of recommendation on behalf of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stands out as an exceptional student in many ways. She has been a violin student of mine for four years in the high school orchestra and three years prior to that in middle school. During this time, I have been fortunate to have had the opportunity to watch her grow and mature into a kind, thoughtful, determined, and enthusiastic leader.

Throughout her high school career, [REDACTED] has jumped at any opportunity to get involved in the orchestra program, both in playing and in non-playing capacities. [REDACTED] has been in the orchestra ensemble for 7 years in total. In addition to being in the large orchestra ensemble, [REDACTED] has been a part of our auditioned chamber orchestras for six years, and she has also served as a section leader in the second violin section during her time in the high school orchestra. [REDACTED] has also assisted me in many non-playing tasks such as taking daily attendance, helping to set up the orchestra room when needed, and giving of her time for our elementary "Try the Instrument Night" where prospective elementary orchestra students come out to try the different instruments. She values her part in giving back to the program and investing in the lives of our school district's beginner musicians. [REDACTED] has also been involved in our high school musicals as a cast member for the last two years. She was also stage manager and production assistant for our fall play her senior year.

Leadership is essential to the music program here at Mechanicsburg Area Senior High School. [REDACTED] is at the forefront of our leadership efforts. She is well liked and well respected by her peers. It is with the highest regard that I recommend [REDACTED] for consideration for this scholarship.

Sincerely,

LaShae M. Willits

To The Operation Wildcat Scholarship Foundation:

It is my pleasure to provide a character reference for [REDACTED] and to additionally recommend her for a scholarship.

I have known [REDACTED] for the past ten years. She started as a student dancer at the studio I own, distinguishing herself from her peers with her determination, friendly demeanor, and positive attitude. She then progressed into the dance studio's Student Leadership Program, where she led and encouraged and assisted in teaching the studio's younger students. [REDACTED] has also become a friend of my family, babysitting my daughter and she is a wonderful role model for her.

[REDACTED] is independent and self-sufficient, and she is highly motivated to achieve her goals. She works hard and it shows! [REDACTED] has a cheerful and generous spirit, and her compassion for other people is obvious after speaking with her for even a few minutes. For over ten years I have watched her strive to achieve her goals and celebrated with her as she has attained them with grace and humility. She has set herself apart from the crowd of her peers with her strong character. She has always been more mature than many students her own age, and she has balanced that maturity with respect for other people.

I am happy to provide any further references for her upon request.

Sincerely,
Kirsten B. Kline
