Electronic Student Aid Report (SAR)

The SAR summarizes the information you submitted on your 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

XXX-XX-2760 RI 04 Application Receipt Date: 10/01/2019 Processed Date: 01/15/2020 EFC: 0 * DRN: 4715

Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 0. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study, and possible funding from your state and school.

Your FAFSA has been selected for a review process called verification. Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents from you and your parent(s).

There is a limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive, which is the equivalent of 6 school years. Once a total amount of Pell Grant eligibility has been received, a student can no longer receive Pell Grant aid.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

Be sure to review the items marked with a 'h' and make any corrections if necessary by clicking 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page.

We assumed you did not file and will not file a 2018 income tax return (Item 32). Review this item.

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

Based on your EFC of 0, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant of up to $6,195 for the 2020-2021 school year provided you have not met or exceeded the lifetime limit established for the Federal Pell Grant program.

Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

The serenity of her voice as she sang striking lyrics from her journal caused goosebumps to flood my skin. After repeating the words she had previously wrote, she added to her melody by pressing the tip of the pen to the paper. Her handwriting had a scribbled appearance, but it was still pretty and comprehensible Spanish. Although her forehead would wrinkle when she was concentrated, the delicacy echoing throughout the room could convinced me that she was half her age.

As I watched my grandmother pursue her passion for writing, I began to understand why writing is such a significant component of my daily activities. Without it, I would not be able to discuss a personal statement that defines my personality. The idea of being able to express an opinion or inner thought on a piece of paper, without limits, brings me a sense of clarity. During my childhood years, my grandmother would constantly remind me why it is crucial to write at least once every day. One quote she would often tell me, "Writing is a form of expression that allows people who are usually silent, to speak." Knowing I was someone who grew up shy, she explained that writing was a method of using my voice without the eyes of others. I didn't understand her mechanism until she passed away. While experiencing moments of grief, I couldn't articulate my emotions to anyone without breaking down. I decided to put the pain and heartbreak into a vulnerable story that spoke the truth. Losing her led to one of my biggest downfalls that reflected in my academics, personal hobbies, and mentality. There were many nights where I would sit at my desk with my head buried in a textbook, repeating the same paragraph until I could comprehend it as tears rolled down my cheeks. Although it was half past midnight and the bags under my eyes were growing darker from exhaustion, I continued to push myself beyond my capabilities and test the remaining strength I had left. It wasn't until I was the one pressing the tip of my pencil onto my diary that I felt relief. I immediately felt less alone when writing and slowly, I was able to find inner peace within reality.

After years of suffering from depression, I've learned new coping mechanisms to deal with the constant war within myself. I am still very young but this form of art taught me how to display my identity in an honest manner. Although people can simply write a paper without having experience, there wouldn't be authenticity in expressing who they are as an individual. Through writing, I'm able to voice my emotions and understand my character. Similar to how writing has helped me, I want to help others in that same manner.

The Foundation for Enhancing Communities

G. Thomas Balsbaugh Memorial Fund Scholarship Application

Harrisburg, PA

Dear Faith Elmes:

As the scholarship application indicates, I am writing to you about extenuating circumstances that I feel this foundation should be aware. Recently, I lost my grandmother to cancer that took us all by surprise. It was very sudden, and quick, preventing my mother from continuing her position at her job. Due to this unfortunate circumstance, she did have to leave her job and we are currently financially unstable. My father is not involved in any part of my life, it is just my mother, nephew, and myself. As of right now, she is looking for employment and I am attempting to apply to as many scholarships as possible for college. Please don't hesitate to contact me at preciousmrivera@gmail.com or (717)-592-0010.

Thank you for your time in this matter and this scholarship opportunity.

Sincerely,

Precious Rivera

To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the pleasure of working with Precious Rivera for the last year. She was in my Keystone Biology preparation group and Honors Chemistry last year and is currently in the AP Environmental Science class. I have found her to have a strong work ethic, a generous personality, and a natural leader. SciTech is a blue ribbon STEM school in the Harrisburg School District that offers only classes at honors and higher levels. Precious works diligently in class uses all the resources provided and creates many of her own. While her grades in her freshman year suffered as she grieved the loss of her grandparent, she grew so much as a student that she was able to go on a volunteering trip to the Dominican Republic and maintain distinguished honors.

Her school record does not show the complete picture. From small thing offering encouragement or passing down her notecards after she passed the keystone to large endeavors like raising money for charity, Precious is helpful to everyone at school. Outside of school, she tutors and has homework help time for kids in her neighborhood. When she heard there was a climate strike in our town, she made posters and recruited her friends to go too. I am excited that she has agreed to be a science lab assistant in the fall because she is already grabbing, cleaning, and setting up in the few minutes that I see her in the morning. So while our school did not have clubs last year, she has invested that time to create her own spaces to make a difference in the community and lead.

I strongly recommend Precious Rivera because her strong work ethic, generous spirit, and leadership will benefit each community that she enters.

Warm regards,

Nanette Blank

To whom it may concern,

I have had the honor and privilege of knowing Precious Rivera at the Harrisburg High School - SciTech Campus during the past two years as a student in my General and AP Psychology classes and Dual Enrollment US History. She has exemplified maturity and surrounds herself with positive, uplifting people She is an excellent mentor and role model for younger students. I have witnessed Precious transformation from a student who was able to work on assignments with a goal of completion into a true leader that is able to master content with a deeper purpose and meaning demonstrated by very few adults.

Precious achievements do not only exist in the academic realm, as she is a tireless volunteer who is an excellent fundraiser. She has been a participant in our local Latinx community charity and education programs where she is a mentor and student. Precious participated in a service learning trip to the Dominican Republic as a sophomore and has continued to excel as a community based agent of change.

This is normally where, as a recommender I pile on the platitudes of excellent classroom performance. Yes, Precious is able to compete with some of the best students I have taught in the last 16 years. She challenged herself with college coursework as a junior and continues with that track as a senior. She is seeking out further opportunities outside of school attending the PULSE program at the Pennsylvania State University Medical School which exposes students to medical based coursework to further that passion. However, when you meet Precious, you are taken aback with her shy and self-deprecating manner. Soon, however, you come to find that she has an engaging personality and a quick wit. Her infectious smile and pleasant personality make her a natural leader among her peers. Her dry sense of humor coupled with her uniquely sensitive nature make her a great communicator.

I am proud to have known and been a part of the development of this upstanding young woman. I know of few other high school students who compare with Ms. Rivera. If I can ever be of assistance, I may be reached at (717) 703-1900. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Kevin P. Varano
