Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

I started playing softball my freshman year of high school. I had never played softball before and the girls brought me in right away and started teaching me. They didn't make fun of me for not knowing anything they helped me gain the skills that I now have. It's not just a team; we are just one big family. That was a major influence on where I wanted to go to college. I wanted something with that same family atmosphere and I found it. As an incoming freshman, I have already made many friends and can't wait to meet more people. As soon as I stepped on campus and walked around I could tell it was a family atmosphere and the students cared about the other students. The professors are the same way, which you normally don't see in a college. They are willing to work with you if you're struggling and are just there if you need to talk to someone. That was an aspect I was looking for and I found it. That was all because of what I was introduced to in high school.

The school I attend now has influenced me vocationally and I believe that my college will too. I believe this because my high school is Catholic and has given me many experiences that I will not forget. They let me learn more about my faith every day. My religion classes let me dive into my faith and ask questions and get to know God. The college I am attending is a Christian college and my faith will get stronger when I am there too because I plan on being a member of Upper Room and YoungLife, which are Bible Study groups. My college of choice has a day set aside for students to go to a church of their faith and participate in the service. The college even offers a Catholic Mass at the colleges' chapel. Knowing that they have that and try to influence it makes me believe that my faith will strengthen and become stronger. These are some of the many reasons that I have in picking what school I would go to. These were the main ones and I couldn't find them in most, so I was very lucky and can't wait to see where my faith takes me.

To Whom it May Concern:

I'm contacting you today at the request of Kellianne Shaub who is applying for the G. Thomas Balsbaugh Memorial Scholarship .

I have had the pleasure of knowing Kellianne her entire life. I've watched as she's matured from a little girl into an extremely competent and well rounded young lady.

Kellianne has been raised in a hard working and integrity based environment. Her father is a distinguished public servant and her mother is an accomplished professional. Kellianne has embraced and further developed many of the traits instilled by her parents.

In school she has repeatedly sought out the most challenging curriculum as well as nonclassroom projects. Kellianne is extremely well rounded as the following list of accomplishments will attest. She's an Executive Board Member for the Christian Service Club, member of the French Club, volunteer for the MANNA Food Pantry, and police K-9 fundraisers. In addition to these pursuits she has played a difficult varsity sport since her freshman year.

Most remarkable to me is Kellianne's natural demeanor. She is what I refer to as an "old soul" possessing a kindness and general understanding of life far beyond her years.

In closing, Kellianne is an intelligent, capable, dedicated, and personable young woman. I feel confident in recommending her for your thoughtful consideration. Thank you.

Please don't hesitate to contact me (717-579-3690) with any questions.

Regards,

Amel. Bong
