> Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System \(NSLDS\) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Total Amount of Loans Outstanding -

Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location

Why I need a post-secondary education and why I chose Penn State University

I aspire to be a music teacher and a trumpet performer. I wish to share the feeling of euphoria I experience with others. My goal is to teach and inspire students like my private teacher inspired me. Despite being as young as I was, my teacher showed me the captivating magic present in the craft he was passing down to me. He showed me that music has the ability to help people express their thoughts and feelings, whether they're performing, or just listening to it. My life has been changed by music, and I wish to share my experience with everyone. To achieve this goal in life, I require further schooling to meet the requirements of this dream.

I decided to attend Penn State University (PSU) to help me to achieve this goal. I chose PSU because I believe that this school can help to expand my skill set and open new opportunities that I may not be able to experience at other institutions. PSU will, and has, allowed me to share my passion with a more diverse group of people and learn new musical techniques and skills that will benefit me later in life. I also chose PSU because their trumpet professor is one of the best trumpet players there is, and I believe that he can help me to become the player that I wish to be.
