The Movie of No Return

by Ryan Casey

Aidan and Grace live with their mom in the small town of Rockford, Illinois. On Halloween night, they take their two friends to an old movie theater. However, upon arriving, nothing would be the same again. They notice strange things about the old theater. It would be the last time they see the real world as they know it, because in an instant, they get sucked into the movie. Surviving monsters, being able to find shelter, building defenses, and defeating an evil being with the malicious intent of keeping them in its world forever, Aiden and Grace wonder if they’ll ever get back alive!
