2020-2021

Electronic Student Aid Report (SAR)

The SAR summarizes the information you submitted on your 2020-2021 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Application Receipt Date:	10/05/2019	XXX-XX-8451 TH 01
Processed Date:	10/07/2019	EFC: 2414 *
		DRN: 5356

Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 2414. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work-study, and possible funding from your state and school.

Your FAFSA has been selected for a review process called verification. Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents from you and your parent(s).

There is a limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive, which is the equivalent of 6 school years. Once a total amount of Pell Grant eligibility has been received, a student can no longer receive Pell Grant aid.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

Based on your EFC of 2414, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant of up to $3,745 for the 2020-2021 school year provided you have not met or exceeded the lifetime limit established for the Federal Pell Grant program.

Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

"Hey, Jonah!" I exclaimed.

"Hi, Miss. Rachel!! Can we play UNO today?" he sweetly asked.

"Of course we can," I replied.

About fifteen minutes into our intense UNO game, the little boy I babysat every Monday began jumping up and down in excitement after winning the game with a "skip" card. As I watched his bright and smiling face bounce up and down, I teased him saying, "Oh man! I want a rematch!"

Within a split second, Jonah's feet were tied up in the blanket that laid on carpet behind him. A loud "thud" echoed in the four walls of the living room. I ran and lifted him up as he began to sob. The baseboard heater had a crimson splash on it, and as he was crying into my shoulder, the gushing wound from his head began to drip on my shirt, eventually on the carpet surrounding us.

Seconds later he collapsed into my arms. I panicked, beginning to shake. I instantly grabbed my phone and called the police. As I waited for the ambulance, I had no idea what to do. To keep within the limits of this essay, I want to make clear that Jonah was okay - a few stitches and minor concussion were the only problems he faced in the days to follow.

In life, I desire to help others and to know how to care for those around me to the best of my ability. I am committed to working diligently in my nursing studies and challenging myself to go above and beyond in my academic studies. I am interested in being in Messiah College's Nursing Program so that I am equipped as best as possible to care for those who need it, and to help others who are unable to take care of themselves. I believe that life is about putting others before oneself, and serving others in the community.

Dear Scholarship Selection Committee:

I am very pleased to recommend Rachel Thrush, a senior at Harrisburg Christian School, as a candidate for the G. Thomas Balsbaugh Memorial Scholarship. As Rachel's current high school English teacher, I have had the opportunity to observe her in the educational and extra-curricular settings over the past year in which she has continued to develop into an accomplished and well-rounded young woman who maintains both a drive for academic excellence and a drive to positively impact the world around her.

An excellent student, Rachel has taken advantage of numerous opportunities to develop her intellect and gain life experience. She has enrolled in many of the highest courses offered her at HCS, and her honors status and various awards attest to her mastery of these academics. Rachel's drive to grow intellectually is not limited, however, to the traditional classroom; for example, Rachel chose to attend a weeklong, summer seminar at Veritas Theology Institute to increase her personal biblical knowledge. Additionally, she currently choses to work as an intern for the Dauphin County Treasurer because it is a "different" job, outside of her realm of experience.

Rachel's principal goal is to use her life to make a positive impact in the world. Though still a student, she has already begun meeting aspects of this goal in her school, local, and global communities through serving as a volunteer. In the school community, Rachel has been selected by teachers and administrators to serve as a freshman mentor and a peer tutor. In addition, she has volunteered to be a student council representative and the girls' varsity soccer team manager. In her church community, Rachel has volunteered to work on the media team and serve as a children's church aide. Furthermore, she has been selected by adults of her church to serve as a youth group leader and as the only teen representative to sit on her church's mission team committee.

Rachel has been able to serve the global community by traveling nationally and internationally on mission trips to New York City, North Carolina, Massachusetts, and Honduras. This spring she will travel to serve in the Dominican Republic with members of her senior class. These mission trips have had tremendous impact on Rachel's worldview; and as a direct result of her experiences, she has developed a global awareness and sensitivity, particularly for low-income countries.

In addition to being an exceptional student with a passion to change the world, Rachel is also an individual who possesses strong personal character. She is trustworthy, responsible, and compassionate -- and on her way to becoming an outstanding leader. Through her diverse experiences, she has already learned the value of working as a team member and the fact that the most effective leadership is ultimately accomplished through service. She also realizes that it is imperative for team members to be flexible and able to take and give constructive criticism.

I believe that Rachel Thrush possesses the character quality and academic potential that the G. Thomas Balsbaugh Memorial Scholarship Committee is looking for in a health care professional scholarship candidate, and I strongly recommend her for your consideration.

Most sincerely,

Liva Bonfarti

Dear Selection Committee,

I am pleased to write a letter of recommendation for Rachel Thrush who is applying for consideration of the G. Thomas Balsbaugh Memorial Scholarship. Rachel was a student in my chemistry class her junior year, earning top class honors. She works very hard at her studies and is very determined to always give challenges her best effort.

Rachel comes from a large family that has been very active in ministry, foster care and adoption. I am confident the family would meet the financial criteria for the award. I can, with utmost certainty, attest to Rachel appreciating and honoring the scholarship with academic diligence. She maintains an excellent academic record while participating in various school, church, and community activities.

Rachel plans to study nursing at Messiah College. I believe she will be very successful in her post-high studies and future career. I would highly recommend Rachel Thrush for this award.
