Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System \(NSLDS\) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Dear Samuel L. Abrams Foundation Committee,

In 2018, my mom opened a small nail studio about the same time I started my time here at SCAD. My mom took money out of her 401K to buy her business so she wouldn't have to worry about paying a monthly rent especially with remodeling the space into a salon and starting with no clients. She also borrowed money from my aunts, uncles, and grandparents, which she has yet to pay them back. My mom's business started slow and she hasn't hired any employees yet because the number of clients she has is still manageable for one person. With COVID-19, my mom closed her businesses since March, many of her guests contacted her over this time but turned them away for their safety and our safety. When I got home from college, I was working for a while in a Vietnamese restaurant before my boss decided to close for the safety of his employees. My dad is the only one that was able to work since his workplace categorized as an essential business. The new situation has been difficult, my mom worries about how my sister and I will be able to pay for college and sometimes wonder if it was a mistake to open a nail studio. I hope you can consider me for the scholarship this year, my family and I are so grateful for your help in past. It really means a lot for my parents knowing that even if they can't help my sister and I as much as they'd like to, we'll still be able to manage on our own and finish college.

Thank you for your time,

Chinh Tran

Important information regarding your statement:

- I. *Anticipated Aid represents the estimated amount of aid expected to be disbursed to your student account at the conclusion of the drop/add period. There is generally no further action required on your part to receive anticipated aid, provided you make no changes which affect your eligibility, e.g. enrollment, housing, academic progress, etc. Please check with alternative loan lenders for any action needed.
- II. Potential Aid requires action (such as, acceptance of terms and conditions in MySCAD) by you or a third party and is estimated based on full-time enrollment. Changes in enrollment, academic progress, housing, or changes in financial information may modify the award. Financial funding is subject to change or loss until confirmed by the funding entity or until funds are received.
- III. Federal PLUS loans may be available, based on credit approval, as a resource to pay for educational expenses. Parents or graduate students must complete the PLUS request process available at <http://www.studentloans.gov> and be approved from the Department of Education, then complete a Master Promissory Note.
- IV. After all SCAD charges have been paid, any credit in excess of charges may be refunded. Credit balances resulting from financial aid are available for refund to students the week after drop/add. To authorize SCAD to deposit refunds from your student account directly to your bank account, please complete the Direct Deposit Authorization form and submit along with a voided check. Visit <http://myscad.scad.edu/scaddocs/forms/upload/DirectDeposit.pdf>
- V. Payments are accepted via mail, in person and online. For terms of payment, payment options and more detailed information, visit <http://www.scad.edu/payment>
- VI. Students/parents have the right to cancel all or part of their Direct Loan disbursement prior to the funds being credited to the student account. Such requests must be made in writing to SCAD. If the cancellation creates a balance due on the student account, the balance is due immediately. If a cancellation request is received after funds are credited to the student account, there must be a credit balance remaining in order for the university to return funds to the program.
- VII. For further information regarding how to read your billing statement and other general questions, please contact your adviser listed in the upper left corner of your billing statement.
