Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Total Amount of Loans Outstanding -

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location.

WARNING: If you are convicted of drug distribution or possession for an offense that occurred while you were receiving Title IV aid, your eligibility for Title IV student financial aid is subject to suspension or termination. If your drug conviction status changes at any time during the 2020-2021 award year, you must update your answer to the drug conviction affecting eligibility question.

After struggling during the first semester of my freshman year as I faced unrelenting homesickness and an increase in difficult coursework, I was more than a little nervous to begin my sophomore year. However, this year I made it my goal to become more involved on campus. I applied to be a Falk College Peer Advisor, a position that would give me leadership skills to utilize later on in my career, and also allow me to help incoming students who would likely face similar challenges that I had.

Additionally, I continued working at the Syracuse Early Education and Child Care Center as a student assistant. I worked several days a week and used my newfound knowledge from my human development and family science courses in order to help communicate and foster development in the classroom. The experiences that come from this position will help me in the future when I begin working as a child life specialist.

This year, I also had the opportunity to begin volunteering at Golisano Children's Hospital in the Child Life Program. By volunteering, I was able to get hands-on experience in my potential field. It allowed me to see what it's like for families and children in a hospital setting, as well as how best to help them cope with the unyielding stress and uncertainty that accompanies hospitalization and treatment. I brought a distraction into the rooms of patients and their families in the form of developmentally appropriate play opportunities.

Through coursework, working, and volunteering, I continue to learn how best to serve the families in my community. My college experiences thus far have allowed me to gain necessary insight into the field I'm pursuing, which has made me more excited than ever for my future.
