> Comments About Your Information

Learn about federal tax benefits for education, including the American Opportunity Tax Credit (AOTC).

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 6888. You are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant but you may be eligible for other aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for other federal grants, loans, and work-study, and possible funding from your state and school.

There is a limit to the total amount of subsidized Federal student loans that you may receive. Visit <https://StudentAid.gov> and select Types of Aid/Loans for more information.

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

The parents' marital status you reported in Item 58 does not appear to agree with the parents' tax return filing status reported in Item 81. If one of these items is incorrect, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page to make the correction. If the information you reported is correct, make sure the income information reported in Items 84 through 87, 91, and 92 correctly reflects your parents' 2018 income.

If you need to make corrections to your information, click 'Make FAFSA Corrections' on the 'My FAFSA' page using your FSA ID. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or click the 'Help' icon on the FAFSA home page. If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online.

> Your Financial Aid History Information

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our StudentAid.gov Web site.

Note that the "Subsidized" and "Unsubsidized" amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for "Unallocated Consolidation Loans" it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

Total Amount of Loans Outstanding -
FFEL (Bank Loans) and/or Direct Loans:	Total Principal Balance	Remaining Amount to be Disbursed	Total

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share, or disclose your FSA ID to anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your FSA ID in a safe location

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless such collection displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1845-0001. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 5 to 10 minutes per response, including time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. The obligation to respond to this collection is voluntary. If you have comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, please contact the Federal Student Aid Information Center, P.O. Box 84, Washington, D.C. 20044 directly.

We may request additional information from you to process your application more efficiently. We will collect this additional information only as needed and on a voluntary basis.

By answering questions 101a through 101t, and signing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, you give permission to the U.S. Department of Education to provide information from your application to the college(s) you entered. You also agree that such information is deemed to incorporate by reference the certification statement on the sign and submit page of the financial aid application. The certification statement can be viewed at StudentAid.gov/2021/help/certification-statement.

WARNING: If you are convicted of drug distribution or possession for an offense that occurred while you were receiving Title IV aid, your eligibility for Title IV student financial aid is subject to suspension or termination. If your drug conviction status changes at any time during the 2020-2021 award year, you must update your answer to the drug conviction affecting eligibility question.

“My Why”

Do you remember being asked the famous question when you were a young child: “What do you want to be when you grow up?” Many children reply to this question with fantastical answers, such as becoming a professional soccer player or an astronaut to go to the moon; however, I always answered proudly that I wanted to be a doctor when I grew up. I have always discovered joy in helping people, which is why I am involved in numerous community service foundations. Most of this service work stems from the medical profession, which is a major reason I desire to become a doctor. Although I will continue to complete community service acts throughout my life, I would like to be able to aid others medically from a higher level, which I need a college education to accomplish. Although I am unsure of the specialty I would like to pursue, I am leaning towards the field of cardiology. Throughout my life, I have attended numerous cardiology appointments due to a Ventricular Septal Defect in my heart. Fortunately, this has not had a great impact on me, but it has opened my eyes to this specialty medical field. I became aware that others can suffer immensely due to cardiac issues, and I would like nothing more than to help them. I feel as though I can relate to them, but I need another requirement first: a college education.

The college decision process was beyond challenging for me, and I chose Pennsylvania State University for a plethora of reasons. Through many visits and a wide variety of research regarding Penn State’s science college, I realized that this university would be the optimal place to accomplish my collegiate goals. One fact that I came across in my research was that approximately 80% of Penn State biology majors who apply to medical school are accepted, which dramatically exceeds the national average of 42%. The Eberly College of Science at Penn State is nothing short of prestigious. Its challenging courses are taught by knowledgeable professors, and the college's academic advisors lead students in the correct direction to achieve their goals. The Eberly College of Science also offers a plethora of opportunities for students, including working in research laboratories, becoming learning assistants, and numerous scientific seminars. With my goal of attending medical school in mind, I took advantage of these opportunities during my freshman year at Pennsylvania State University. For the upcoming Fall 2020 semester of my sophomore year, I will be working as a learning assistant for Biology 110 through which I will assist in lecture and hold office hours to help students learn the material. Aside from its academics, Penn State provides a home-like environment despite its large campus and student population. I am forever grateful for my God-given abilities to attend this renowned university and take advantage of the opportunities it offers.

Financial Aid Awards

Your aid awards are available for review. If your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) has been received by the Penn State Office of Student Aid, then you have been considered for all types of aid awarded by our office, including University, state, and federal funding. This information will be updated if we are notified of any additional awards.

Financial aid awards are subject to revision based on federal, state and institutional regulations. Your estimated expenses and aid can change based on enrolled credits, receipt of other aid or financial aid application eligibility changes.

Tuition and fees are finalized by the Board of Trustees in July; billing begins in early August for fall semester and early January for spring semester.
